I WAS NEVER NOT THERE

i'm on a see saw i'm in the lake an interuption on your tea break and i'm never not there i'm all the tin toys that will not windup and all the spillages that you can't clean up and i'm never not there somethings you can get rid of somethings won't leave your side bags of rotten orange & fucked up lullabies an old man's whistle a young person's smile some strange fuzz they tuned past on old radio dials and I was never not there

h - fis - e

Could somebody please eat up my tainted old sleepy eyes I have taken them out prepared them well Sliced them into quarters its hard to tell Them from an ancient delicacy
They served it to queens and to holy cows
And Jesus himself once had piece Its called Blue Eggs

I should have told you how much I miss you But instead I serve you Blue Eggs
There are people standing on the side I know them too well
And they are - looking at me wondering If I would bring it over me to serve you Blue Eggs a delicacy
They served it to queens and to holy cows
And Jesus himself once had piece of Blue Eggs Could somebody please eat up my tainted old sleepy eyes

many boats docked at pier bone rattle winds, singing masts horror beats in your heart and all fog is stolen breath seaweed stinking in the sunlight we're just products of days & nights theres a giant eye looking in tiny humans by the ocean crash crash crash crash crashing waves a criminal boxing thug upstairs beats down on your brain its rains, rains, rains rains but nothing ever washes away souls are little boats in our chests weathering strange weather in our days and nights

RAINBOW SEASON

Crawl out of your crazies It's rainbow season

And that's a good reason

Wipe your shit on a pile of leaves You're Bad at catching fish

Good at appreci-ating scales

It's rainbow season There are so many reasons

For coming out of your cave

Dead eyes fill with colour There's more a bear can bare You're not left on the side of a road if all roads lead some-where

Crawl out of your crazies Creeping crawling maybes

Bring a picnic basket

Leave your brain on the stove Kick black dogs in the face

The world too is your place

It's rainbow season! It's rainbow season!

You can find them all the time (2nd time through:) you can smell them in the air

Open up your eyes they are just over there! (2nd time through repeat this line twice)

GRÜNER STAUB

Es staubt grün aus ihrem Kleid Wenn sie sich dreht dürfen wir atmen Die Brillanz, der Menschen Geist Scheint aus jeder Faser hell Und das Gift lächelt leise Die Zeit wird mir ein Denkmal bauen
Und sie dreht sich im Kreise
Und wir atmen grünen Staub

Wo bist du wenn ich mich sehne Gift freies Hochgefühl?
Sie spührt bald was das Glück macht Feuchte Augen blicken tief
In ihr Herz, bei jedem Schlag Weiß sie was das Leben will Ein bisschen mehr von dem Pulver Das die Wände leuchten lässt

Streue Tod und streue Seuchen Lass die Glieder explodieren Mache ausgewählte glücklich Sie wirst du nicht mehr verlieren Und die Lungen brennen leise Ihre Augen feucht und froh
Und sie dreht sich im Kreise
Der grüne Staub steigt empor

FOUND YOUR BRAIN

days - watching them days - all of them with their own lessons tailored for you brains - sneeze out your brains - lay them on leaves sail them down rivers forming in gutters during storms kisses - remember all kisses - remember the moment - just before they were tailored just for you twists - accept all the twists - & drunk octopie put days in your eyes and here's a surprise I found your brain, here it is

STICKS AND LEAVES

Waterbears on the moon Looking for sticks and leaves
On the highest mountain peak Where thousand russian soldiers slipped Olivious for Historical Oblivion Chalkboard fantasies to come It flattened a whole town
There are no leaves on sticks Leaves are on twigs Until you strip them and Then they are sticks

Yesterday a rocket crashed Into the moon on board Onethousand waterbears to bloom Collecting sticks and leaves Oblivious for The slaughtering of seven cows Weeping on mountain hights Over broken bones
There are no leaves on sticks.....

Naked bodys freeze to death Survivers kiss the depth Generals celebrated For bringing misery to Towns that will be Covered under stones Waterbears dream on the moon
Of sticks and leaves
There are no leaves on sticks.....

Trap wind inside a box Let it loose at home
I freed a monster
But it was just an appointment

Hello my dead father You look the same as you used to ghosts dress in sheets Coz they can't afford mansions

I remember the last time i met you A field in a dream
You offered bad advice

I followed the text book
I made in my head
But the print got all runny
And i'm beginning to suspect

Movies lie to us

RITUAL COW TIPPING

Large mass on the ground Strange things rear their heads Life doesn't make sense

And I became a clown
A moldy dressing gown An evening drunk that sings Away with everything

But if I had no legs I'd wriggle, spit and drag Everyone down with me And hold you all right here

Behold this drowning clown Did you pack your bags?
What is love but cutting fine clothes into rags
